“ Mrs. Oldford was kind, inspiring... and a lot of fun! I loved hanging out with her when I'd visit my good friend, and Mrs. Oldford's granddaughter, Aubrey. She was always warm and thoughtful and always ready to laugh.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great friend, Dee. Dee lived a productive, colorful, and eventful long life. I knew her as a mother-in-law, a role she excelled at. She was of good humor, never interfered in our lives, and she always treated me as if I was another of her children. I was very honored that she thought of me during her last days and will always be grateful to Marty for calling so that we could have a few words. Godspeed, Miss Dee! You live on in the hearts of many.

“ What a wonderful legacy to leave. It sounds like a life well lived. When I hear about the times the family gets together and what a great time everyone has, it certainly must be your Mom's influence. Marty I'm glad you could be in Michigan with your family to say goodbye. Pat Carlyle

Marty and all the Oldford family - December 12, 2014 at 10:14 AM

“ Our condolences to the entire Oldford family, but what a blessing to have your precious loved one with you for 90 years, this is truly a gift from God. She is now rejoicing with the angels in heaven. Where she will patiently wait for your arrivals I would like for you to listen to a beautiful song that meant so much to me when my mother left this world. Serinated by Angels by Kirk Tally, It will say it all. God Bless you all with Pece, and Love. Anfor & Janice Ali
