I carry Mother in my heart and prayers forever. God blessed her with a long and productive life. She left our family peacefully gone to her eternal rest in heaven. Memories of her love, energy, strength and perseverance inspire and sustain us. We celebrate Josephine Elizabeth Rupert, loving Mother.

Josephine Elizabeth Rupert was and is my grandmother. I believe her eternity will be a restful place. I believe she deserves a home with our heavenly Father that exceeds all of her expectations, hopes, and desires. She shared her love quietly and worked diligently as a wife and mother, serving her family well. At three times in my life when I needed help, she was there in unexpected but necessary fashion. When I was an infant, she provided some of my baby clothes. During college, she enabled me to continue my education at a higher level with much needed funds. She then showed a GREAT Grandmother's love when we had our first baby, Paul Michael Anderson, by giving a baby layette for our young son. She was also generous in giving have a small child's table and chairs and a Raggedy Ann doll that our daughters have enjoyed and will pass on to their children. Although I didn't spend a lot of time with my Grandmother, I am thankful for her life and the influence she had and has on my life. I am sure the Lord is welcoming her into the place he's prepared especially for her...Josephine Elizabeth Rupert. God Bless Her, My Mom Joanne Marie, Aunt Mary, and my sister, Kirsten Anne Baggett....and their precious families and friends.
