Lucille L. Hiatt

March 25, 2004

Lucille L. Hiatt, age 92, and long time resident of Battle Creek, died Thursday March 25, 2004 after a short illness, at Superior Woods Health Center in Superior Township (Ypsilanti) Michigan. She is survived by a daughter, Jacqueline Beebe, of Livonia Michigan; and a stepson, Richard Hiatt, of Uniondale, Long Island, New York; also five grandchildren; and three great grandchildren. Mrs. Hiatt was married to Donald Kingman, who was retired from Clark Equipment Company; and Raymond Hiatt, who was retired from the Battle Creek Police Department. Both are deceased. Lucille lived in Kingman, Arizona, and Las Vegas, Nevada from 1967 until eight years ago, when she moved to Michigan to be near her family. A memorial service was held in Canton, Michigan at the residence where she lived prior to her death. A graveside service will be held April 15 at 1 PM at Memorial Park Cemetery in Battle Creek. For information call Vermeulen Funeral Home, 734-459-2250.

My deepest sympathy goes to the Hiatt family and friends. Mrs. Hiatt will truly be missed. I did not know Mrs. Hiatt, but I want to share a very encouraging scripture from God's Holy Inspired Word the Bible that I rely upon when losing a loved one(I just lost my Aunt, Sunday) and at: (Isaiah chapter 25 verse 8) "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it].
