“ I just saw the obituary in today's newspaper (3/22). I remember the Wasik family well. I lived on the other side of the street from them (1951-1969). Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your mother. Prayers for healing go out to family and friends. I wish I had known about this sooner; I see the services were held at the church my mom and dad attended.

“ I was just rereading my Mom's Tribute wall (as she passed away Feb.26th, at 98) when I came upon the listing of Mrs. Wasik, my Godfather's wife. I'm so sorry I didn't know about this as I would have attended. As we all go about a "New Normal' in our lives, may God provide the strength and love to help us through. There must be one heck of a Polka party going on right now (as yet another friend's Mom passed on Mar. 7th) in Heaven!
My deepest Sympathy.

“ I was blessed to have know Mrs.Wasik (Angie) for over 45 years. Her daughter Camille and I have been friends since 1975 and Mrs.Wasik and the family were like extended family to me (and my family). I considered her to be not only Camille's mom but my friend. We had many wonderful visits on Clayburn and when she moved in with Camille. One of my most special memories was our trip to Gatlinburg TN. In 1979 Chris and I took my mother and my 10 month old son David and drove to Tennessee. I was pregnant with my son Joey. Camille and her mom drove down and met us there. We had so much fun, sight seeing talking and laughing and driving through the beautiful mountains. My mom and her loved talking together. Later on I would visit her on Clayburn and 15 minutes would turn into 50 minutes. Loved giving her angels for her birthday and she kept them all. I will miss you Mrs. Wasik, but I know you are with our Lord, your husband Frank, Bobby and your whole family. Give my mom and dad a hug for me..Love you.

“ I have known Angie for years. She was a rare woman who combined brains, beauty, kindness and compassion. She was a devoted wife and mother, always friendly and ready to share a laugh. I will miss her but will keep her memory alive in my heart.
