“ I am just seeing this news today on Facebook. I have such lovely memories of Beth (and Brian) from the basement of the BGSU music building and many outings around town. Such a kind soul and always fun to be with. We had only recently started to reconnect via FB and I am sorry that we had lost touch for so long. I am sending deeply felt wishes to all of her family and loved ones. She was so very special.

“ I have no idea how I missed this but I just found out today. Beth and I were good friends at Gateway and then in HS, especially senior year. We were in the new "honors program" where you could sign out on Fridays to go do library research. A group of us took to signing out and going to the Pizza Inn Buffet :). We also worked on the school paper that year. So many good memories. We were also at BGSU at the same time and went to each others' weddings, then kept in touch through Christmas cards and then FB. I knew she had been ill but didn't have any idea. Condolences to her family, and a hug for her children and granddaughter who I made her so happy.

“ I opened my Facebook today to find it was Beth day. That were friends on Facebook for 4 years. But it's been a lot longer than that. My first friend and forever friend since I was 5!! Could talk to her about anything and stayed in touch no matter where I lived. Sorry that your family has lost such a wonderful matriarch. But I just remember all the fun and stupid things we did!! I loved the way y ok played the piano..so I could sing!!!!LOL God I hope you know how much your missed. I miss you dear friend

“ My thoughts and prayers go to Beth's friends and loved ones. I had the pleasure of working with Beth at Optum. I will miss her smile, kindness, warmth, and positivity in everything she did. My fondest memory is of her helping to plan celebrations such as wedding or baby showers, volunteer events, or our annual holiday party. She was so thoughtful and always went the extra mile to make everyone feel included. She will be missed dearly!

“ My cousin, Beth. Her smile and personality were contagious, and I always looked so forward to her family's visits to Leechburg because I knew I was in store for days of laughter and silliness that only two young girls could appreciate. She kept me entertained for hours whether we were playing games, watching TV or just talking. She has given me such fond memories that they make me chuckle to this day, and I was happy to see her at the Righi reunion. We were so sorry for what Beth and her family had to endure. It's not right; it's not fair. For so long we prayed for a miracle healing, but for a reason that only God knows, it wasn't meant to be. She is now reunited with her parents and our grandparents. She is whole again, healthy and happy . . . but busy . . . for we know that Heaven is a busy place with lots going on. Maybe she is a music director or playing an instrument helping to fill Heaven with sweet melody. Whatever she is doing, we know she'll do it well, with love and passion, like she lived life. We send our prayers to her loving husband, children and the rest of her wonderful family. May God heal their heartache and may they feel His presence and comfort knowing that Beth is in good hands. This is not the end of her journey; it's just the beginning. And the best is yet to come.

“ It is with deep sadness that I send my condolences to Beth's family and friends. Few people leave everyone they meet with the feeling that they are cared for, but Beth was such a person. As a co-worker, I witnessed her kindness and compassion daily, even within the humdrum setting of the regular work day. May the passage of time dull your pain and allow you to embrace the wonderful memories you have of your times with Beth, now sheltered in eternity.

“ My sister... So easy to take for granted that you'd always be here, always be an hour or so away. So difficult to fully comprehend that you're gone.

I never got to tell you:

I really did enjoy listening to you practice the viola and piano. Despite antagonizing you, whistling while you practiced to mess you up on purpose, and generally being a pain in your neck. You were really good at both and I loved hearing you play.

I appreciate you always being there growing up. Despite showing me chewed up food at the dinner table to make me sick, scaring me half to death after watching some scary movie, or yelling at me to get off the phone, get out of the bathroom, leave me alone. I can't imagine growing up without you.

I did scratch your Beatles White album and probably many others when I snuck into your room and played your records.

I felt a great sense of pride when I'd have the same teachers you had in high school and they'd tell me how smart you were. Of course I always told them I'm smarter.

Kidding, but I should have let you know that.

You have a beautiful family. Loving husband, four great boys, and an adorable daughter and granddaughter. I never told you that... I should have.

You'll be missed dearly by your little brother.

“ Beth and my sis we're best friends since I was born. Beth was always so kind to me. She attempted to teach me piano, and was always so patient in spite of my complete lack of talent. I am so incredibly sorry she was called home so soon. May God wrap you in peace and comfort in this time, and may faith and beautiful memories carry you through. Amy (Searfoss) Rodriguez

“ Sending all my love to Beth's family - you were her world! Beth was a funny, kind, intelligent woman who over the years we shared lots of things about our lives. Though we never met in person, over social media on myspace and facebook, there was a group of us, including Beth and we laughed and cried over all manner of things in our lives, always there to hear what was going on, give advice, love, to listen. We also all had a real whacky daft sense of humour. Never forgotten, ever xxx

“ Beth, I am so sorry to hear of your passing. I will always remember your sweet smile and the gentleness and kindness you shared with those around you. I remember you as a wonderful mother to your beautiful children. Although you have left this earth far to soon, heaven has surely welcomed you as a beautiful angel. Rest in peace in the arms of Jesus, dear cousin.

“ Dear Cousin, you were such a beautiful person inside and out. So sweet. We didn't get to see each other very much, but the times we were together I will treasure forever. You will be a beautiful angel in Heaven. All of us here in Leechburg love you and will miss you so much. We will hold you in our hearts always. We were so blessed to have you. Be at peace now, my sweet Cousin. Love, Marie

“ Little sister....a gentle soul with always a kind word. So many memories, but I will always look back on the times when you were just a toddler being spoiled by your older siblings. Gone too soon.

“ My baby sister, an answer to prayer!
I took for granted you'd always be there.
I'll miss your sweet spirit and positive view,
"Tre sorelle" outings and sisters gifts too.
With tears I must say there's a hole in my heart,
But one day I'll join you and we'll never part.
"No more night, no more pain, no more tears, never crying again!"

“ My sister, my best friend. I don't know anyone kinder and more valuable in my life.
Thank you for for being such a wonderful person. Love you always.
