“ I didn't know Dawn for that long but I did work with her. I always enjoyed seeing and talking to her. She was always very sweet and pleasant to talk to. When I heard of her passing I was heartbroken. So sad that she had to leave so early. Your family will now have an angel to watch over you

“ I find myself unable to travel across country to Dawn's memorial service so I would like to write a few memories of her here. I came into the McBain family later in life (I was 31 when I first met them). I remember sitting around Mom's big picnic table in the dining room area and seeing my half siblings for the first time, hearing the stories and laughter. Dawn had been living in LA then, but I seem to remember her being there too. One of my first specific memories was walking around the "block" with her as she pointed out different things about Plymouth and told me stories of growing up there. I remember driving to LA when she got married and meeting my Mom for the second time that following summer. Dawn was always so friendly and welcoming and full of love. I am sure she has entered into the light and is in a better place. I hope she gives Mom a hug for me.

Much love,
Michael Naumes

“ I send my deepest sympathies to Dawn's family and hope they can find comfort in the light and beauty she brought to a world she left much too soon.

“ Sad to hear of Dawn’s passing. Life’s journey takes us all on unexpected paths often times leading to years of little or no contact. Unfortunately, this is all too familiar to me. Dawn, I want you to know that even though this has been the case, you, your sisters and your brothers remain in my heart. This part of your journey has begun all too soon, but it will be wonderful. I’ll always remember you as a giggly, precious beautiful little girl. Please accept my love to you and your family. Rest In Peace.

“ I remember many fun and adventurous moments that Dawn and I shared over the years. She was a dear friend, and was always ready to experience life to the fullest! You will always be in my heart, my dear friend. And I will be talking to you in spirit until we meet again in heaven. And as in life, the years will melt away and we will pick up where we left off.

Love,

“ I will never forget Dawn's giggle when she was being mischievous or getting away with something. So many times, and NOT when we were kids!

If you could hear about some of the dates she went on you would laugh so hard or get angry at a few. But all in all she could hold her own and NEVER went without words.

It's not like she had a lot of dates because she was always worried about what the kids would think, but I think I remember her getting "caught" by Shawn, with his coach.

Dawn was the best listener, (if you could get a word in) and had good advice. She never advised me through something she hadn't experienced, but always had good ideas.

There is so much I want to say about her, but I'm sure everyone who knew her could say so many things. I'm no one special, but I looked at Dawn as my best friend and was able to tell her a couple years ago. Not sure I was hers, but she always made me feel special.

I will cherish all the fun times we had, all the memories we shared. But the biggest thing that comforts me, and that we shared, was our faith in Jesus. We would talk about Jesus many times in our long conversations, and she truly loved the Lord. It makes me so happy knowing when she "wakes" up, she will be in heaven with our Lord! I will be there too my friend and will experience the most wonderful never ending rewards that he came to give everyone who believes in him. I'm excited for her and for me.

So it's hard for me to shed tears, now that she's gone. I will miss her terribly, but the thought of her "new life" is so overwhelmingly exciting, I just can't be sad.

I loved her and will miss her.

“ To Shaun, Danielle, and Trey,
My thoughts and prayers have been with you daily in recent weeks. I have been remembering the art fairs, movies, and St Peters sporting events your Mom and I attended. I saw Shaun at Platos and met his beautiful family. He told me Danielle, Trey and family were living in California and doing well. I am sure she thoroughly enjoyed her grandchildren. She had to have been so proud of you knowing her parenting and hard work paid off. Lois Lanning

“ My son, AJ, is a first grade student on Miss Dawn’s elementary bus route. We were so very sorry to hear about her passing. She was the kindest soul and took great care of our kids! Every morning our younger son (18 months) would look forward to seeing the bus, and not one morning passed without Miss Dawn opening her window to wave to him and say hello. We will truly miss her friendly face and wish her peaceful rest. We will continue to pray for her family as they grieve and hope that you may find comfort. AJ said he just knows that God has given her wings, because she was the best bus driver ever! God Bless you all.
