“ We first met Dick and Delores many years ago at Trinity Church. Since Delores passed, we always saw Dick faithfully coming to church. He was always the same demeanor, of such a wonderful model of what a Christian man should be. He loved his Lord, and his family. He always would say to me, "Give me a hug". I was always afraid I would hurt him, especially as he got older. He shared a story of being in Alaska as a young man working on the fishing boats which was such a treat to hear. Dick had had many challenges in his life, I remember him talking of his son and spending so much time at Mott Hospital with him.

We will certainly miss his constant interest in our family that was always so very genuine.

“ Dick was the most dependable man I have ever had the pleasure of having in our family and a brother-in-law. He was always the one i could count on. I will miss him but know he is happy with family except for one that will be much like him.

“ I loved my Uncle Dick. He was a very kind, gentle person. We always loved it when he would come visit. I always baked him a carrot cake. I never eat carrot cake without thinking of him. He will be greatly missed.

“ Dick was a great example of a “gentleman”. His belief in God, family, and country, showed his true character. When I became his son-in-law, by marrying his daughter Denise 42 years ago, I realized just how important family was to Dick. His decisions were always made considering the impact on his family.
After Denise passed Dick and his best friend Belton Williams and I met for lunch once a month, and we were looking forward to getting back to it once the pandemic was over.
I will miss his friendship and smiling face.

“ As a new church, most of us left Ward Church to become members of this new Trinity Church. Bill Moore was our pastor and after a few years, when we moved out of Isbister School to finally have our own building, Bill asked me to become an elder. I felt I was too young, but he said I was ready, so I joined Session, along with Dick and Belton. Here Dick was the general manager of the GM parts in Livonia, and what a blessing to be on Session with both Dick and Belton. I still remember Dolores showing Karen and I pictures of her beautiful granddaughter (I think they lived in Chicago), and we had the pleasure of being in a small group with Denise and Chuck. Trinity was reaching out to us veterans, so I phoned Dick about three weeks ago to see if he would do a video of himself on "What Memorial Day means to me", which would air on our Pod Cast the following Sunday. Dick however said he wouldn't be interested in that. We sure enjoyed his company and he had a tremendous memory. Dick was one of my highlights at Trinity, and he lived a long healthy life. Most importantly, he was man of God! Our blessings to his children and family.

“ Dick was a beautiful soul. While attending Trinity, before moving to NC we always sat close to Dick at the Sunday worship service. He always hugged my wife Sandy and was such a delight to speak with! He will be missed! Dan & Sandy Kneller

“ Dick was my closest friend. We lived across the street from each other for over 40 years and spent many hours together. Dick loved to play cards and usually was the winner. He served as Elder at Trinity EPC and contributed significantly to the growth and strength of the church. He was truly a remarkable man and is sorely missed.

“ We have known Dick since the beginning of Trinity Church. We always sat two rows back from Dick at church. My wife got a hug each time we saw him. He was such a kind gentle person. He always commented if we weren't at church and was concerned about us. We will miss him. We send our condolences to his family. What a wonderful man. Dick and Pat Bombach

“ I only recently had the privilege of getting to know Dick. 6 of us began playing cards once a month in the winter time. Dick was always kind and gracious, but he sure liked to win! He "kept us in line" with the game and always knew the rules. He will be missed.

“ We haven't know Dick for as long as many of the church members have. We got to know Dick and Belton when Jerry was on Staff at Trinity for a short while but what a blessing that was to us. We often went out to lunch and played cards with Dick and Belton always having a great time with the two of them. The two were such great friends and we always looked forward to getting together with them. Dick was such a special delight to me as he reminded me so much of my own dad. Dick had such a kind, gentle and happy spirit but really liked to win at cards. We will miss him so much. We send our deepest sympathy to all his family. You were so lucky to have such a great Christian man as part of your family. Gods Blessings, peace and comfort to all of you.
