“ My name is Darrell Callaway. I live around the Pittsburgh area. Eric or to me he was EK was nothing but the best friend that a guy would want to have in life. The golf games that we had and in the work place before my retirement he was nothing but a pleasure to be around. While playing golf at times on a Saturday morning he would talk about his family and about the outings that would be coming up and how much that he was looking to being with everyone. He talked about his Sister and especially his nieces and nephew. He loved all of his family. I was able to live stream the service and it was beautiful. May God bless each and everyone of Eric's family members. Each and everyone are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Eric was a joy to play golf with - I know no one who could hit right and left-handed with equal ease, except Eric - totally amazing. I thank Eric and Darrell Callaway for allowing me the pleasure of playing for their team when they needed a sub. Eric was ever encouraging, friendly and ready with a kind word. Rest in peace my friend, swing smooth, hit 'em straight, smile long.

“ You are so right Dale. I looked forward to each time that we were together. Whether it was playing a round of golf or in the trenches at work. He was just a great guy that I will miss forever.

“ My Friend EK

My Heart and prayers goes out to the family. I had the privilege of getting to know Eric's Mom and Dad through the game of golf. Playing on a weekend or playing in a yearly outing. I enjoyed each time that we were together. I Hope one day I can meet the rest of Eric's family.

A better of fifteen years ago a young man became a part of our team. He grew over the years and wanted to be nothing but the best at what he did. It was a pleasure to work with him on a daily basis up until my retirement. He always wanted to learn. He loved traveling to the other plants to help with whatever the job may be. He will be missed by all.

It comes now to something that was very special to me and that was our weekly golfing that we did as soon as the courses would open up. Eric, Tim and myself always looked forward to the Sunday 7:15 tee time. We played, we had laughs and we enjoyed each other's company as much as we did the game. Tim and I made a promise that when we can get together and play a round the first one off the tee box will be for our friend EK. He loved the game and we loved the game right with him. These times will forever be with me. I miss you Buddy.

Your Friend

Darrell

“ Really sad to hear the news of Eric's passing. Eric was one of my first friends away from school that I met on the diamond. He was one of the stars for the dream team we had back in our youth for the Phillies. Eric was a great guy with an incredible appetite for being the best every time he crossed that white line. He was a good friend, kind person and I'm glad I could call him a friend. Rest In Peace.

“ Dear Eric,

I have no idea how my life would have turned out if we didn't become great friends senior year of high school. We competed against each other on the baseball field, but off we had such fun times. From the Rock Shop to Master Lighting (although that's not what we called it) to all the card games in my basement, you made everything so much fun.

Because of you I went to CMU after you took me up there to visit your sister which was the first time going to the Wayside. That first semester in Troutman was a blast. I only wish I would have kept pestering you to come visit me and your dad on Wednesdays for bowling so we could have hung out one more time.

Rest in peace buddy.

“ Dear Eric,

Thank you for being such a wonderful friend! We grew up quite a bit together in middle school and high school. Playing sports, listening to music, learning to drive, going through goofy growth spurts, etc., etc. You made baseball look so effortless and pushed me to be a better player. I can't even fathom how many rides to baseball practices and games you and your family gave me. Ahh that white Geo Metro! I'll never forget you circling me in your car in the high school parking lot (playing Jimi Hendrix very loud!) while I fired up my car, Brownie. Your smile and sly grin from that moment will always be crystal clear in my mind.

I have missed you over the years and I am really sad that we will have to wait a little longer to meet again. Pick out a nice baseball diamond, make sure the grass is cut to your dad's specifications and have a bucket of balls ready. I look forward to having a catch on the other side in due time.

With love. Your friend.
