“ My deepest condolences to Toppo, Mark, Sam and the entire Tanari family for the loss of your beloved Fred. I have had the pleasure of observing the life and times of Fred for over 25 years. Most important to Fred was his family whom he worked tirelessly to provide for. At Cobo Hall, Fred was an iconic person, larger than life. His word was his bond, his honesty and integrity were without question. A fair, kind, and generous man, Fred cared deeply about his clients and workers. His contributions in assisting the DADA in raising the Detroit Auto Show to the international acclaimed North American International Show are legendary. I had the pleasure of sharing a glass of wine and cigar a time or two with Fred. Few could tell a good story like Fred. His laugh was infectious. His handshake, with his huge hands, was firm and sincere. I believe, Fred was greeted at heaven's door with a warm embrace from his longtime friend and partner Sam Madden. Thank you, Fred, for the wise counsel that you provided me over the years. May you rest in peace knowing the legacy you leave behind in the values that guided your life are instilled in so many.

“ My sincerest sympathy to Fred's family. Would like you to know that we shared one of our first jobs together working for Kinney Shoes. What fun Fred was!!! He was kind, gentle and dependable that many years ago. We were about 15, 16 or 17 yrs. old. Memories are sooo sweet of him. Cliff Kabacinski was our manager and Les Flaga our asst. Cliff is gone . Hope Les sees this notice in the news. We all started out together in the 50's.

God bless you all and know that you were blessed to have one-of-a-kind wonderful men as a husband and father and grandpa, I'm sure.

“ Our deepest condolences to Toppo, Mark, Sam and the entire Tanari family for the loss of Fred, a truly wonderful gentleman. We knew Fred as a neighbor for many years and as busy as he was, he always took time to share a funny story, a kind word, or to simply ask how the family was doing. Though we miss him dearly, we know he is now in heaven above watching over all of his loved ones.

“ Writing this is emotional for me but I wanted to share some of my thoughts. I met Fred in the early 60's when we were co-workers at Display and Exhibit Company in Detroit. He worked in the Paint Dept and I was a Carpenter Apprentice. Big, strong, just a nice guy - you couldn't help but like him. As years passed, the company prospered and so did our friendship. We did some hunting and fishing and got together for an occasional lunch or beer. Years later, we both were busy with our respective companies. He pretty much ran Cobo Hall and I stayed in the display business so we still had a connection. As we grew older, I truly enjoyed talking with my long-time friend and reminiscing about the "old times". We always talked about getting together but unfortunately that didn't happen. When you grow and share life experiences with someone, growing older is not difficult. Fred and I had that sharing. He was on my mind so I texted him on March 16, wondering how he was and hoping all was well. He didn't respond then I heard the sad news of his passing. Fred was a very special friend. He loved life! I miss the times we shared but thankfully he lives on in my heart because he took the time to leave me with memories of one of the nicest human beings in my life. God bless you, my friend, rest in peace, I truly miss you. Dave Gentile

“ Fred recognized very early on that for the auto show to be successful it had to be important to everyone on their own terms. The manufacturers, media, analysts, suppliers, consumers, sponsors, and the thousands of people who worked to build the show all found what they wanted and felt a sense of ownership in the show. Fred was a rock that we all needed and counted on. His faith, character, and his love of his family, the City, and the people always came through.

My sympathies to his family and to his many, many friends.

“ I am sad that I cannot accompany Fred on his last journey. So many unforgettable moments will always remind me of our time together - Fred was one of the most generous people I know - he was there when my mother died, he took care of the young soldier in frankfurt, and For sure he would not let you get hungry home - thanks for everything rest in peace, my thoughts are with his beloved ones

“ Fred was an amazing host and though I was a kid in the group he treated me like a King. Rod brought Fred to see me in the hospital when I was paralyzed while he was in a wheelchair himself. In HIS own way he made it clear we would BOTH walk again. He was right. I loved and admired this man.

“ 9238 Yorkshire, Detroit, Mi.: August 1968 Fred and Toppo became our landlord after we returned from our honeymoon. Fred never raised our rent for the 8 years we lived there. They were so good to us ..... such giving, kind and generous to-a-fault people.

We both moved on in our lives and lost touch until our lives crossed paths again in 1975, when Fred had a meeting with my boss, Dan Hayes, from DADA / Detroit Auto Show and Fred and his co. were hired to be the general contractor for the Detroit Auto Show which in 1989 became the North American Auto Show. In those years from 1975 thru to my retirement in 2010, I became aware of many acts of anonymous generosity by this man to people in need. Fred worked his butt off to achieve what he accomplished and my husband and I so admired him for that. I think he was grateful that God had blessed him with a wonderful wife, two great sons, grandchildren and many, many loyal friends. We wish we had told him what a difference he and Toppo made in those first years of our married life. KkWhat an example of a life well lived! We are all God's children and when he calls us home, it's our time to return to Him.

I regret we are unable to attend the services for Fred due to my husband's recent surgeries. But we will be there in spirit and prayer, as well as making donations to St. Jude's and Shriner's in his honor.

God bless you Fred Tanari .... you were one in a million!

Fred, until we meet again.

“ Working with Mr. Tanari was a great experience. If I came to Cobo Hall with a ten foot exhibit or an IBM or Porsche .exhibit, he welcomed me and provided great service. I recall an evening when we broke away from the show floor and drove to Millers Grill for hamburgers. Fred Tanari is truly an icon in the Trade Show business and he will be missed. My condolences to the Tanari Family. God Bless him and may he Rest in Peace. Bill Joyce

“ My condolences to the Tanari family. Fred and I were classmates at St. Ambrose. I always liked Fred. He will be remembered as "one of the nice guys". And as I read the tributes left by others, apparently Fred never changed; he continued to be a most charitable "nice guy". He will be missed by all who knew him.
