“ Freddy will truly be missed. I feel so fortunate to have been part of Freddy, Patsy and Linda’s lives. I have so many amazing memories with Freddy, especially every St. Patrick’s day, he would wear his festive green and put a smile on all our faces. He didn’t talk much, but he would always say my name, “Jo Jo”, which always made me feel so special, and I always rubbed it in my coworkers faces...HaHa! In my almost 13 years of being a caregiver, I have never seen such devotion and love that both Patsy and Linda showed Freddy, EVERY SINGLE DAY. You both are so amazing and Freddy was lucky to have you, and I know that he knew that! The only way I could get Freddy to let me shave him was to tell him, Patsy wants a kiss when she comes in today and she wants a clean shaven face and he would give me know problems at that point. Almost every day when Linda came in to see Freddy, he smiled right when he saw her. I miss seeing him walk the halls, he could out walk anybody and never hesitated in giving anybody a push in their wheelchairs. I will never forget my Freddykins
