“ Deepest Sympathy to the Family of: Larry Frederick Rader. I'm truly sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one Larry, he will most definitely be missed... Please take comfort in knowing that God does care about our suffering when we lose a dear loved one to the enemy death. How do we know? The Bible tells us at: (1Peter 5:7) says: While you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.- And not only does he care he has done something at great cost to himself, by sending his dear Son, Jesus to die for our sins, and to buy back what Adam and Eve lost in the garden. Yes, Jesus gave his precious life for those of us who are exercising strong faith in his ransom sacrifice. (Matthew 20:28). He will soon do away with the enemy death at God's appointed time. For the Bible tells us so. And God cannot lie. (Titus 1:2).

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Larry will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Larry again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Larry seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Debbie and family, I am just shocked to read this about your brother. I found it quite by accident, although we known that there are no accidents. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy to you and your family. Margaret P.S. Debbie and I grew up in Detroit together on Fielding.
