“ Dear Mom,
It's hard for me to think that your not here anymore, but you deserve to be pain free. We really bonded when you would come out to California to visit and help with the kids, 7 weeks would go by quickly. We would laugh so hard sometimes about such silly stuff. You were so fun to have around.
When I think of you, I think of your quirks. You were a very modest person and always liked to save your “good clothes”, you loved to wear clothes that looked like pajamas, and then there were your pajamas .
You loved eating cereal for dinner, especially mixing different kinds.
You loved shopping at Walmart.
When you came to my house , you loved to look around and find items not used and still in the package so that we could run around and return it to save me money .
You loved soft serve McDonalds ice cream and pancakes, and sliced deli ham,... sliced thin . you once said, “ now that is living” after leaving the deli counter.
You were a devote Christian who lived by example . You never lectured me about going to church.
You loved to say hello to people at Glacier Hills, and sometimes give them silly names that related to there job “ box man “ was one . Everyone knew you. Everyone loved you .
You always told me when my hair wasn't right , you liked it curled . You were sure to tell me if you didn't like my shoes or coat or shirt, just as much as you would tell me I looked good.
Mom , I expected to sit with you one last time , feed you oatmeal , or just hold your hand.

You always told me how proud you were of me, and how much you loved me .
I thank God for the many years we did have together.
Thanks Mom for being you.
I love you,
Your only daughter .

“ Matka,

I remember the heart to heart we had when I came home to live with you for a brief time after college graduation. We cracked a beer together and talked about life. We connected and I came to realize that I got my sensitivity and playfulness from you. Thank you for a lifetime of being my Matka --- and my pal.

We remain connected in spirit. . .Love,

Brian (#5)

“ Dear Mother,
Despite being one of seven, thanks for making me feel special and maybe even your favorite. Thanks for providing a great family life and always a seat at the table with a wonderful meal. Thanks for listening to me explain my dreams and ideas and providing feedback but never judgment. Thanks for your wonderful letters when I was in college and in Colorado. During the many times I was homesick, I came home to you and returned rejuvenated. Thanks for being so proud of Niko and Maddie and encouraging them to be the best that they can. Thanks for the things you knitted for us. You led by example to encourage the values of ethics, hard work and humility. Thank-you for 61+ years of unconditional love. I wish that I could have seen you one more time to tell you that I love you and thank-you. I know that you are with God now and I will pray for you often.
Your loving son #4 Randy
