“ I just read his amazing story--how this man spent the last hours of his life standing for the life of those weakest among us. God bless this family in their pain. I feel solidarity with them because I was also out there at my local clinic that day. Now Robert has gone to meet his Savior and receive his reward. I think about the people who die committing sin--how awful for the last act you do on earth to be one of wickedness. Robert's last act was of obedience to Scripture. I'm sure he was very happy when he opened his eyes in heaven and heard "Well done thou good and faithful servant". Prayers and love to the family during this heartbreaking time of separation. But know it is only temporary. you will see Robert again.

“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live... They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com

“ I know this is a sad time as Robert's family mourns his death. I hope that everyone can take comfort in the fact that Robert died doing the Lord's work as he began to suffer the heart attack while standing up for the sanctity of human life and against the killing of the innocent unborn. God took him at such a beautiful moment. His life and death will stand as a great testimony to the truth and mercy of God.

“ Bob and Joan have been dear friends for almost 20 years. They were our next door neighbors at Lake Chemung Outdoor Resorts. Bob and I especially liked to play horseshoes together and he was always there to help me with the annual horseshoe tournament each year. Bob and I also enjoyed going to the Woodward dream cruise in his Corvette. We also have many fond memories of Holidays spent with them and their kids and grand kids over the years, they have always been more like family to us. I will always remember his big smile and that funny chuckle of his. You will be missed but all of the great memories from throughout the years will always bring a big smile to my face. I'd like to share a memory here, it was 1999 and we had back stage passes at Pine Knob for Ringo Starr's All Star Band courtesy of Lynn, oh what a night we had! Thanks for the time and love you shared with us, God bless you Bob.

“ Bob was so kind at Bible get togethers at Richards Restaurant. He made his home available always felt like a welcomed guest by his wife, Joan, and of course, Bob. He was a hockey fan too, and he would share a story, and I used to love his authentic hockey Jerseys. I could meet him at church, and he had a kind word, or maybe a funny antitode. Bob will be missed I know by many friends at Richards, and it is possible (i hope) a little at least of his spirt will live in us, too.

“ I miss my friend Bob. We had been in Prayer-Partners/Small Group for 12+ years, but even before that we knew each other because we worked for the same company. I remember the first time I ever spoke with Bob at church. It was a Wednesday night. I had come straight from work and was still wearing a work shirt. Bob came over and introduced himself and said he worked there too. He was friend when I was new to the church and a new believer in Christ. It was about the same time I had signed up for prayer partners and I remember hoping I would be in the same group as him. Through the years I have been blessed to call him and Joan friends.

This is a poem I wrote when my mom passed but I think of it today.

No One Mourns the Butterfly

*When you see it floating freely in the air
When you see it going by without a care
When you see the glorious beauty in it's wings
You see it black an orange and know it's the king*

*It once was crawling slowly upon the ground
In the form of a worm it was bound
No one cared or knew that it was there
And even if you saw it you would not stare*

*Then one night it knew it was time to change
And it started doing something very strange
There was no mistaking this was it
It was time to unveil God's great gift*

*So out it came for all to see
As it flies by it gives you peace
Does anyone say oh that poor thing
I think it was better off without those wings*

*Just remember this when you see it in the sky
No one ever mourns the butterfly
So the day will come when it's time for me to change
All I ask for me is you do the same*

“Joan Mark and I were so saddened to hear of Bob's untimely passing. Bob was a wonderful man, a mentor and most of all a friend who will be missed so very much.

Praying for you and your family that you find peace and comfort during this very difficult time.

“Dear Joan & Family:

Words cannot express how I feel but want you to know I will be praying for all of you as you go through this pain of losing Bob. He was always such a kind and thoughtful man.

God makes no mistakes and Heaven is a sweeter place because of Bob.

Claim the promises of God and know he makes no mistakes. Romans 8:28 is always true, but sometimes not what we want in life.
