“ Carol, I'm so sorry to learn that you have lost your beautiful mom.

I am not sure if you remember me, but I was great friends with you and Roni in our younger days.....and I'm also sorry to learn that you have also lost your sister, Roni.

By the way, my name is Jayne (Trosky) Buczynski.....its been so many years and I hope you remember me. As I was reading my free press this morning your mom's photo and her last name hit me and I had to read it to see if this was the Kowal I knew.

Please drop me a line as I would love to touch base....after all these years. Im; just so sorry that it is under these circumstances.

God bless you and fill you and all your family with His love and peace.

Love in Christ.

“ Carol, Dana, Dara—
Mrs. K., as I called her, was the most endearing person. She was always interested in me and my family—probably the sweetest person I know! I have many memories of chatting with her over the 50+ years I have known her. I will cherish those memories...

Love & Peace,
Cheryl

“ Aunt Sylvia was one of the kindest people to walk this earth and I always called her an earth angel. She always showed so much love toward the family. My kids absolutely adored her and I’m so very grateful to have called her family.
