“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dearest Rochelle, My heart was breaking as I read your facebook posts and link regarding g.a.s.p. You and your family have been and will remain in my thoughts and prayers. I know God will protect and love her until we all meet again and I know you now have a forever angel looking over you. I pray you and your family find the courage, peace and strength to get through this most difficult time. May God rest her soul and her memory live eternal. All my love, Peggy xxoo

“ Dear John and Kassie: I offer my deepest sympathies and prayers on the loss of your angel Abby. She was a wonderful daughter and a great kid. The day I had met her she brought such a bright spot to my day, her smile was so inviting and touching. Please know God is with you all at this time and Abby is now with God. Take care, Anne

“ To John, Kassie and families, I was so saddened to hear of Abbie's death. I wish I could find the words to ease the pain that you all are feeling. Losing a child is one of life's saddest challenges and words that give true comfort are difficult to find. Do know that I am thinking of you all during this time of loss. My heartfelt condolences and sympathy goes out to you all. Sandra Merlone Halsey
