“ You were the first of my "little sisters", Ada, and I will always hold you deep in my heart. There will never be any one who can fill the place where you should be. I am so very glad that I was able to be there with you at the end, to tell you it was OK for you to go home. You were indeed the bravest of women. I love you. Goodbye until we meet again at home.

“ You will be missed dear, sweet, lovable Ada. So many wonderful memories of family gatherings, especially our crazy Christmas get-togethers! So happy and full of love. I treasure the beautiful afghan you knitted for me for my wedding shower. This beautiful gift from the heart keeps whoever is lucky enough to get it first warm and cozy on those cold nights! Beautiful memories of you are forever in my heart. My heart aches for you, Mary Jane, Eleanor, Eileen & family. Big McKay hugs to you all. (I can still feel the last one we gave each other:) Love, Jo Ann

“ Rest in peace, Ada Ann McKay (1941-2012). You are loved, and will be missed. You honored our family's past by with your amazing memory for stories, events and dates; you fed us with Grandma's bread and rolls; you kept us warm with your home-made afghans, gloves, and hats. You entertained us with board and card games. Your lap was Katy's favorite resting place. May the road rise to meet you; may the wind be ever at your back. May the rains fall soft upon your field; the sun shine bright upon your face. And, until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand. Amen.

“ My Aunt Ada taught me how to make a ripple afagan. I have one that she made for my oldest son when he was a baby. I have many fond memories of her playing board and card games with me and my sisters. She could tell you the names of family members, and how they met, how they were related, and funny stories of events that transpired in the past. She was quite the historian of the family. My thoughts and prayers go out to my beloved Aunts Mary Jane, Eleanor, and Eileen. I will always have a special place in my heart for my Aunt Ada Ann. Maureen

“ Dear Mary Jane, Eleanor, Eileen and Family So very sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this heartbreaking time. Asa was a wonderful and loving person and will remain in my heart as part of the special memories of Christmastime dinners at your house as I was growing up, and the McKay family gatherings. I share your pain and wish you the comfort of gentle memories. Love, Sharon
