“ "I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened; it is the scroll of life. The dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds. And the sea gave up the dead in it, and death and the Grave gave up the dead in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds." Revelation 20:12, 13. This scripture and many others can be found in God's word the Bible.

“ Kirk and Diane no words could express how truly sorry I was to hear your mother (my Aunt) was under Hospice care and 3 days later of her passing. I remember visiting your Mom and Dad in 2004. Hadn't seen them in 22 yrs. and how nice it was to spend time with them. She will be missed and remembered in many ways in the years to come. Sad to think with her passing we've had the closing of a generation. Prayers for all her family and friends. Auntie you were one of a kind and so was your first pot of homemade Chicken soup. my hugs and love to all

“ So very saddened to hear about Adeline. She was my Godmother and I will always remember her with loving fondness. For my 12th birthday, she took me to my first Detroit Red Wings game at Olympia Stadium. After the game, she asked if I would like to go wait by the locker room to see if any players would come out. She and I were the only ones there. After about 20 minutes, lo and behold out comes none other than Mr. Hockey himself...Gordie Howe!! He was dressed in a suit and tie and carrying his hockey stick. He walked directly over to Adeline and me, signed the stick and gave it to me!!! It was one of the most exciting memories of my life that I still recall to this day. Thank you for that and many other wonderful memories, Godmother! May You Rest In Peace.

“ You were the only one that laughed at my jokes during the KofC Bingo on Fridays. You always looked forward to my one liners. Will miss you.
