“ Dear Gwen, Bob and Kids, So sorry to hear of Alan's transition. He was such a brave soul, you must be so proud of him. I'm glad he was at peace with everything. He could not have had better parents than you two. I admire you both and am so proud to call you my cousin. Just know my love and prayers are with him, you and the rest of the family. Much love, Leslie Antkowiak-Martinsen and Ben Martinsen

“ Bob, Gwen, Andy and Lili- We are so sorry to hear about Alan. He was such a wonderful young man that always had such a positive attitude. Alan was an inspiration to all and achieved more in 22 years than most people do in 72. I have memories of Alan watching Andy play baseball and seeing what a joy got from that. Hold all of your memories close to your hearts. May God bless your family and bring you comfort during this most difficult time. Chris, Lynn, Daniel and Michael Schultz

“ Dear Gwen, Bob, Andrew and Lili: I know I speak for many others when I say that we remember Alan as a little boy running on the playground at OLV, and watched with heartache and heartbreak as his disease progressed. I know that there is nothing that can be said to ease your pain, but please know that both Alan and all of you are so deeply admired for the faith and indomitable spirit you all have displayed so quietly over the years. Alan went so far, not only because of his strength, but because of yours. Now that he has slipped his "surlly bonds of Earth", I'll bet he's hitting one home run after another! Go Alan!

“ Sorry to here about passing of Alan. Its sad to see someone so young have to pass so soon. Their is an encouraging account in the scriptures found at Mark 5:35-43 of a child that pass but was resurrected by the Christ, making the family rejoice. Pray to the God of comfort & he will help you through this time.

“ Dear Bob, Gwen, Andy and Lily, I can't stop thinking of all of you right now. I hold you in my heart, thoughts & prayers. I was blessed to be able to care for Alan, and to get to know him this year. He was a remarkable, intelligent, caring young man, who made an impact on me that I will never forget. Take gentle care of yourselves and each other. Hugs and Peace, Ann-Patrice
