“ Julie, First and foremost, my deepest sympathy, thoughts, and prayers to you and your family. This must be an overwhelming time for all of you. If I can be a listening ear, please don't hesitate to call or send an e-mail. May the God of Comfort keep you strong & firm. (2 Corinthians 1:3 & 4) Remember: • Rely on family & friends • Take care of your health • Postpone major decisions • Be patient with yourself • Get back into a regular routine • Do not be unduly anxious • God's Scriptural promise of the resurrection hope (John 5:28 & 29) Sincerely, Karen

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Albert will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Albert again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Albert seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
