“ To all Bud's children, I am so sorry that you have lost your dad. Our dads were great friends for so many years. My mom has spoken often of the wonderful times they all shared. I imagine they have reunited in the afterlife and are enjoying martinis together once again. God Bless them! Please know that we are thinking of you.

“ I join with you in grieving over the death of your Dad. Over his loss, there is much to grieve. But there's also a life to celebrate. Sure he understood that "business is business." But I always suspected that under that rough facade was a man who wanted to be liked...and respected. I liked him, and he sure had my respect. My hunch was validated when he took me to lunch so I could witness the mutual love and respect between he and the restaurant personnel. Bud was truly an American original! I hope time and loving memories help you come to terms with this great loss we all share.
