“ *Dear Janet, Gail and Families:
I was saddened to see your father's (in-law's) obit in the Free Press last week. It seems like your mother passed away not to long ago. Just want you to know you're in my thoughts and prayers, that God's grace will give you peace and comfort during this time.*

“ Detroit had no bigger sports fan than Alex Grand, my grandfather. I thank you for sharing your love of baseball with me and for the stories about when the Lions were actually good and you and your brother Paul were season ticket holders. You were indeed a "self-made man" and I will miss you.

“ I remember Mr. Grand quite clearly when we came to visit in 1972 and 1992. Mr. Grand treated us like his family and his smile made us feel like family. May he rest in peace and rejoice in the Lord.

“ Dear Grand Family,

*I am saddened by the passing of your father. He was one of my favorite persons in the world. He had such a marvelous sense of humor that made him a joy to be around and a gentle kindness about him that made you feel he cared about you. I shall miss him. With love and sympathy,
Beverly Hendricks*

“ Dear Cousins and Family Members,

I just wanted to write a short note to all of you to let you know that Uncle Al was my most favorite uncle in all the world. He was so talented in his craft and had a sense of humor that could not be beat. I have such fond memories of him and Aunt Jackie. And now he is in a better place with Aunt Jackie. My deepest sympathy.

“ Dear Grand Family, may you find comfort in knowing that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves".-Psalms 34:18. A key to enduring your loss is knowing that God promises that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrecton of life".-John 5:28,29. While grief at the loss of "Alex" is great, joy at receiving your loved one in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5:42) May you find peace and comfort in God's promises during this difficult time and the days and weeks to come. Take care.

“ Grandpa Grand was a great man. He lived a long, healthy life, and raised a great family. He will be greatly missed. He was a very hard worker, and when it was time to relax, he went fishing. He was the best grandfather you could of ever asked for. Now he is with Grandma Jackie.

We love you Grandpa.
