“ Mark, Molly, Lauren, Madeline and family: There are never the right words to say about such a tragic loss. Mark and Molly: Every time you speak about your girls, there is love and pride in your voices, and Alex surely knew how much she was loved and cherished by you every day. My prayers will be for peace for you, and joy in heaven for Alex.

“ Burgett family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I used to work with Alex at the pharmacy. She was my favorite person to work with because we always had so much fun. I don't think I'll ever eat Russels Stovers chocolates without thinking of her and all the chocolates we ate while working there. She was taken too soon, but she'll live on in the memories of everyone who was lucky enough to know her.

“ Mark and Molly and family Alex's loss brings much sadness to all who knew and loved her. May the words of Jesus about a return to life for the dead bring you comfort. Please read John chapter 11 there he demonstrated that our loss loved ones like Alexandra can live again by means of a resurrection. He promises this will happen when he says at John 5:28-29 "...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." My heartfelt wish is that this message of hope brings the family peace.

“ I worked many happy hours with Alex at Wiltse's Pharmacy (I was the pharmacist). I will never forget her great smile or funny laugh. We talked about everything, including her plans for the future, which have now been unfairly cut short. She was SO excited to go to Western and start her life. She will be missed by many and never forgotten, Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.

“ The Burgett Family, Your daughter was a friend of Valerie's at WMU and we had the pleasure of meeting your wonderful daughter on a couple of occassions while visiting WMU. We are at such a loss after hearing about this accident. It's truly the most difficult time for any parent or family to experience. Our hearts and prayers go out to you and your family in this sad time. God Bless from your extended WMU family.

“ Burgett Family, I knew Alex as a result of her friendship with my daughter Laura during their years at Bird Elementary School. Words cannot express how tragic this is--a parent's worst nightmare! My thoughts and prayers have been with you since I heard about the accident. A piece of Alex will live on through the impact she had on her friends and classmates...I hope knowing this can help you find the strength to move forward one day at a time. All my best, Jerry Sigler

“ *What a tragic time for your family. Such a beautiful girl; such a loss for this world. Mere words can't express the sorrow that's in my heart for your loss of Alexandra. As my heart goes out to your heart, I pass along these Biblical words: I will lift up my eyes to the hills from whence cometh my help. My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
