“ Aunt Aileen; we are all deeply saddened to learn Uncle Alf has departed for his heavenly home. Martha has fond memories of you and Uncle Alf from her stay in Michigan. Louise, Tommy, and I were not as fortunate to have as many memories, we were just getting to know this special man and loved him. Martha, Louise, and I treasure the time we spent with you following Mother's passing. He will be greatly missed. We love you both and pray that God will comfort you during this sad time. Love you, Martha, Louise and Tommy, and Naomi.

“ Al was the best friend and neighbor anyone could ever want. Always there with a helping hand. He did love the sweets I baked . Could never thank him enough for all he did for us. We will miss him everyday, especially in the summer mowing and doing his garden. RIP our friend. Our thoughts and prayers are with Arlene and their families. Fred and Nancy

“ He was a special cousin. I will always cherish and remember when we went for Chicken dinners on Friday Nights and when he and Arlene came to our annual fish fries. Also when growing up, I was older than him but I can remember the good times we had. I will miss him so much, but I know he is going to a better place and I will see him again, still It is hard to give him up. Gene and Robbie McTurner
