“ I don't think I can pick a special memory or moment with grandma. I know I lost touch with you due to growing up and moving but I will always treasure everything you have taught me, told me, showed me, shared with me and so much more. From the garage sales during the summers with Grandma Erma, to swimming in your pool when you had that big pool in your yard or from going out and looking at that huge garden you always had. These are just a few things I can say you shared with me. You always taught me funny saying likes "I have a few shackles or I think I have some duckets" and much more but those are the favorites that I still say to this day. I think the one memory I will always remember was the last time I saw you when I visited you for your birthday with my mom. I got you that teddy bear and you hugged it and wouldn't let it go the entire time we visited. You only put it down to eat your birthday cupcakes. You were truly one phenomenal woman and one of a kind. I know you are gone but you most certainly won't be forgotten. I love you, grandma.

“ I'll never forget my Aunt Alice ringing a cowbell like a madwoman while my mom participated in a charity basketball game while I was in junior high.
Thanks, Alice, for helping out when times were tough when Bill and I were kids. RIP
