“ I have known Alice Heinrich since I was in the 3rd grade. My parents were a part of the subdivision Welcome Wagon which welcomed new people who had moved into the neighborhood. My dad and John Heinrich became Scout Masters together and my mom and Alice became fast friends. When my dad passed away Alice would stopin and visit with my mom every few days to check on her. That meant a lot to my mom and myself. You could not find two nicer people than Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich and I am thankful and honored to have known them and called them friends. I will miss you Alice but I know you are all together have a great time.

“ I will always remember the party she had at her house (maybe 4th of July). It was right around the time "Achey Breaky Heart" came out and boy did she love that song. I can still see her standing on the porch singing that song. Heaven is a little brighter tonight.
