“ My Mom....MyGuardian Angel....The Pillar of Our Family... The Strongest Woman I Know I never thought we would lose you so soon... I miss you so very much!!!! I thank you each and every day for the things that you have taught me throughout my life. I thank you for your wisdom, strength, kindness but most of all for your love. These last few months have been very challenging and difficult and I believe that without having the strength, wisom and love that you have instilled in all of us, we would have not been able to do some of the things that we have had to bring ourselves to do. I know that I am who I am today because of you and for that I am and will always be truly greatful! We WILL carry on your legacy the best way we know how... we did learn from the best ya know !!!! I know that we will meet again one day, but until then, enjoy spending your time with loved ones passed, reading a good book and most of all... playing that slot machine in the sky !!!! You have always been and will always be a winner in my eyes. -My love and thoughts each and every day-

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Alice will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Alice again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Alice seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I understand that it is never easy when someone you love passes from your sight. But that is all it really is, Out of Sight, If there is love, they will never leave you. They are only as far as your Memories, and your Heart. And if you live as the Good Book tells you. The Out of Sight, is only a temporary situation. The Lord above will take care of your mama. May he also take care of you. I am around if you need an ear.

“ For my old Granny, I know that my Daddy and Aunt Britney and my Grandma will pass on to me all that you taught them. I know you loved me bunches and I will always know how handsome you thought me and my Daddy were. I learned independence from you in my ducky tub! I love you and I know that while I only had you a little while you will always be there for me; my own personal angel in the sky.

I love you always and miss you a bunch.

“ Kolton, Your Chippewa Hills 'family' is keeping you and all of your family in our thoughts and prayers. May God bring you peace knowing your Grandma is in Paradise breathing with ease, no pain, no suffering ever again. She'll always be with you in your heart and in your spirit. Honor the love she gave you by showing your personal strength when you can, then reaching out to others when you are weak from grief. There are so many here who care deeply for you and stand ready to help in any way we can. May God be with all of you during this most difficult time. My condolences to all, Laura Dean-Bonnell
