“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Sad news and sympathies to Fred and family and friends. I will always remember Alice for that bright sparkle in her eyes, passionate opinions and sense of humour. Alice and my mum (Dora) were formidable sisters and I bet the little town of Rotherham wouldn't have coped if both had stayed. One either side of the Atlantic was probably a good balance and a win for the USA.

“ We have returned from holiday and were saddened to learn from Fred of the death of Aunt Alice. We are sure that she will be very much missed by her family and friends and was the last of her generation of the Garnett family (having survived her sister Dora and brothers George, Ronnie and Roy).
Our deepest sympathies at this sad time

Love

Clive & Jose

“ How frustrating that there's never enough time to say goodbye. I loved getting together with Alice - she always spoke from her heart, and before the conversation was over, we were sure to have a good laugh. I will miss her for now. "For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him." 1 Thessalonians 4:14

“ my prayer to alice--as th sun shines over mountains, i know it will be you shining on me when a butterfly is near i know it will be you waving at me, when an acorn falls from the trees i know it will be you talking to me, when the birds are singing i'll know your ringing and when the rain is falling i'll know your calling. your precious smile will always be in my heart and your lovely voice is only a earshot away. and as the sun sets for the day and the vibrant colors light up the sky, i will think of you and how lucky i am that you were part of my life. my dear alice-you will never be forgotten. may you rest in peace. judy abt
