“ To my Cousins,

Your mom was truly an inspiration to me. I remember how touched I was that she and your Dad made the trip down to Florida for my wedding. I know that she is dancing again in heaven right now with the love of her life. She was a source of strength for my Mom after my own Dad passed away. She came to visit often and I know that she was my Mom's favorite sister. My mom loved her dearly and I know that my Mom is reunited with her now as well. I will always remember the wonderful advice and counsel she gave to me when I went through a difficult time.

She was loyal and joyful, with the most loving heart. I know that you are all so sad, yet happy at the same time, for she is finally at peace and reunited with not only her beloved husband, but all her siblings. I love you Aunt Alice with all my heart!! Look down on us all and tell my Mom and Dad to visit me also in my dreams!!!

Your loving Niece, Shelley

“ Mom, it's Sunday and I am sitting here listening (blaring) Frank Sinatra and getting misty eyed. I just heard "That's Life" by Sinatra and remember you laughing as we danced together at my wedding to that tune. We agreed that the lyrics spoke directly to the both of us. Well, I'd better "pick myself up and get back in the race". I know that's what you would have wanted. I love you forever!

“ Alice,
You have been such a kind, cheerful and strong role model for ALL of your family for so many years. Your spirituality, perseverance, commitment and love have touch ALL of us in so many ways. I will be mourning your loss for a long time, but I will also be celebrating in your reunion with your husband and family that have gone before you. I already miss seeing your happy blue eyes and your bright smile. I love you. Betsy

“ Al, you were always my hero and a teaser. That day when you saved that girl who fell into the creek behind our homes on winona. You did not wait for anyone to help. You gave her c.p.r. and her life. The teasing part was, I'm twenty days older then you. Alice you where one of my best friend, I will miss you alot. Love, Sal

“ Dear Carol, Janet, Mary, Bobby, Gary, Tom and to the rest of Alice's beloved family,

Pete and I would like to express our sincere sympathy for your loss. I hope her and Bob are having a wonderful reunion looking down lovingly on the the family they created, cherished and loved.

I have many fond memories of Alice going back to when I first met her in 1966 or 67, when Carol and I were in the 7th grade. Though I haven't seen her since we moved out of state I'll always remember the kind letter she wrote to me when I was moving to New York 20 years ago. It was as if she knew of my sadness of leaving family and friends but assured me the move would bring more friends and happiness. She was one of the few women that made being a wife and mother a true vocation, of which I most admired and respected about her.

Rest in peace, Mrs. Jones, it was an honor and pleasure to know you.

Fondly,

Linda Barr Jenner

“ From the day that Janet and I were married, you became MOM to me. When I conversed with you, I did not refer to you in a 3rd person and I did not call you by your name Alice. You always were and forever will be MOM. When my Dad was still here and he had a bad day, he would always say that better days are coming. Well, Mom, your better days have indeed arrived. I will always love you.

“ Mom,
*I'm the Good Lord will finally get you to email, since we never could!
When you do read these condolences, you'll see and know how much you touched all our lives.*

I am so lucky to have been the oldest; I feel I saw your transformation from homemaker to head of household. I have all the memories of you and Dad taking us to the shore, the late night games of Michigan Rummy in the big old houses we rented each summer at Wildwood and Stone Harbor.

When Dad died, I was afraid of losing you, too. I could never have envisioned how you put your grief aside, and took over as mother and father to all of us. Especially for the three youngest, whom you made sure got to college, and all the help you gave all of us in difficult times, you were always there, always ready to listen, always ready to help.

I know I spent a lot of time in your 'God Box' of prayers. Now that you are with God, you can see how much you have always been in mine.

Although it is difficult for us now, it is no longer difficult for you, now, and that is a comfort.

*I'll miss seeing you in this world, but I'll always love you.
Someday, we will all be together again.*

“ Dear Alice,
The first time you met me you welcomed me into your family with open arms, even though Bob and I had been dating for a short time. You said "if Bob loves you, that's good enough for me, and I love you too." You extended your love to Melissa, Thomas and Michael, and said you considered them as your own grandchildren. These are my favorite memories of you.
I realized that Bob had a wonderful family, and I was blessed to become a part of it.
Thank you,
Love, Becky

“ To the greatest "Mom #2" anybody could have ever wished for. Your loving heart, joy for life, and quiet strength were and will always be an inspiration to us all. I was blessed to have found the love of my life in your son, which brought with it the love of a second family. I am grateful to have known you and called you mom. I will miss you terribly. I know God promises us a brighter day ... and I know you are enjoying yours now with your loving husband. I will keep your memory and spirit alive in my heart, until we see each other again. I love you. Laura

“ Dearest Tom, Laura, Mike, Sarah, and Jones family,

Remembering your Beautiful Mom/Grandmother today with a heart full of respect and gratitude. Alice always wore a warm smile, spoke kindly, and carried herself with grace and integrity. I appreciated Alice's wonderful sense of humor, and how her eyes lit up whenever she spoke of her children. She was so proud of all of you. And, she has been the Loveliest Mother-in-law to my sister Laura. Thank you, Alice, for blessing the world with your legacy of Faith, Family and Love.

Eternal life and peace in Christ.

“ Perfect in so many ways,
Never has any bad days,
She's a great talker,
But a better walker.
Such a keen mind,
Always very kind,
Grandma's great,
She'd be an amazing date.
I guess I forgot to mumble,
She is also very humble.

“ Dear Gary and Betsy (and Robert, Carol, Janet, Tom and Mary-- hope I didn't miss any of you!)

What happy memories I have of your Mom!: a shining presence at family gatherings, and so proud of all of you! That strength at your Dad's death is just a part of the inheritance she leaves all of you. The grandkids will remember her smile and willingness to play, and hug! Not a bad legacy!

I will remember her faith...and her pride at her son's marriage to my niece, Betsy, and at her various grandchildren's Baptisms. Parents show us, by their lives, a path to follow. Blessed are those with the faith to walk in their footsteps, and discover joy in doing so.

I hope to gather with you all on Sunday evening, and regret not being able to be present at your Mom's Funeral Mass because of commitments here...but my weekend Masses and especially the one on Monday will be for her--and for all of you.

Love,
