“ Alma, Thank you for the love and laughter that you brought into our lives for so many, many years. When we were feeling a bit down, we could always count on you to tell a joke, or two, and make our worries go away. Aunt Eleanor, your best friend for life, loves and misses you as do all of us.

“ Alma, I'll miss you very much. I am so glad that we had a chance to spend time together. You have touched the lives of so many. The stories you've told about your life and the stories friends and family tell bring smiles and laughter to all. We should all be so very fortunate to live as full of a life as you have. You will be in my thoughts and heart always. With Love, Ernie Jr.

“ I always enjoyed seeing you when Dick & Barb would visit. We talked baseball and you always got a kick out of my stories about life as a firefighter. You were a terrific lady and I am better for having known you. Rest easy now, Aunt Alma, your work here is done.
