“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Elaine, I was both surprised and sorry to read about the recent passing of your mother in Sunday's Detroit Free Press. I had driven past the house on West Outer Drive last summer and wondered where your folks were and if they were still living. My thoughts and prayers will be with you Saturday as you celebrate her life with family and friends.

“ Dear Great Grandma, I love you, and miss you. I remember when I was little I would spend the night at your house. We would do latch hook sewing, and make dinner. Then when we woke up in the morning, we made our beds together. I never really expected you to pass. You were always there, so kind and caring. You were so tough, you made it through so much. I know everyone misses you, and loves you so much. I am constantly thinking about you. Love, Rachel <3 R.I.P. Great Grandma <3 You deserve it. (:

“ I love you Grandma so much! Thank you for always being there for Jen and I. Thank you for forgiving us for hiding Grandpa's candy under the chairs :) Thank you for Sunday Popcorn nights with apples and cheese. Thank you for taking us to so many musicals. Thank you for giving me crushed aspirin with honey when I was sick. Thank you for letting us watch Dukes of Hazzard:) Thank you for being a strong amazing wonderful person. I know you you are dancing with Grandma now. So, cheers to yellow roses and lemon cake!
