R.I.P.: Todd. :-)

I had no idea that you were sick until I read about it on the night of your funeral. I'm in shock. I still don't know much about your illness. I have lost so many loved ones in the last few years, it is truly unbelievable; particularly in 2015. I certainly hope that you did not suffer for long. Cancer is a horrible thing. I've been watching my step dad suffer through it since early 2012. I also lost a best friend to it in 2012.

My prayers go out to Kay, Damian and Todd's additional son that I've never met, along with ALL those who were close to Todd. I am so very sorry for your loss.

I remember countless good times spent with Todd. He was a funny guy. I have him on VHS somewhere in storage from a New Year celebration.

 I loved his mega-characteristic signature laugh! If I close my eyes, I can hear it now. **

His laugh was infectious! Nobody could hear that laugh without laughing themselves. I urge his family and friends to remember that laugh and the good times that came with it.

You will be missed, Toddles, although I have not been around in a long time, it seems like I just saw you yesterday. Back during the 12-13 years when I was around, you showed a tough exterior, but I always knew that you had a good heart. Thanks for always keeping it real and being honest with me in situations involving your friend, who has been my ex since 2002. I always appreciated that you would tell it like it was. Not many people carry that value.

Again, my heart goes out to everyone who loved Todd. I am so very sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. MAY GOD TOUCH, BLESS & COMFORT EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU IN A UNIQUE WAY THAT HELPS YOU THROUGH YOUR GRIEF.

R.I.P.: Todd. I had no idea that you were sick until I read tonight. My prayers go out to Kay, Damien and Todd's additional son on that I've never met along with all those who were close to Todd. I am so sorry for your loss.

I remember countless good times spent with Todd. He was a funny guy. I loved his signature laugh! He fixed my car on many occasions. He was good with cars too. You will be missed, Toddles, although I have not been around in a long time, it seems like I saw him yesterday. I can still hear his laugh and I have him on VHS somewhere.

Again, my heart goes out to everyone who loved Todd. I am so very sorry for your loss.

Silly me. I have corrected my mistake, added to my message and put it in the correct place.
