“ Growing up I spent a lot of time hanging around Ameer's house with Jordan and our group of friends. I've known her since I was in kindergarten. Every time I would run inside I would end up being sitting at a table with Ameer for hours talking about everything. She always made me feel at home and we could talk about anything. I am so thankful for the role she played in my life and I am glad she is now in a world with no more suffering. Rest in heaven beautiful

“ I remember you were the first person to say hi to me in 8th grade when i first moved to Onsted....I remember you always had a friendly smile when someone was sad....I remember you always asking how i was doing...i remember after high school you visiting me at work and bringing me home made chicken soup when i was at work. I remember the big heart you had and I remember hearing you were gone and the loss i feel....I remember i'll always remember you and miss you Amy

“ I have a million memories with Amee. She was the big sister I never asked for growing up lol she taught me so many things. She did my makeup and hair for 7th grade winter formal. She was in my delivery room when my son was born. We could sit at a family gathering or party and find entertainment in each other. She taught me to be witty, sarcastic and how to cook and do makeup. She was so smart and talented at so many things. I will miss her so very much every day
