“ I still think of Amber often. We were not of relation but shared the same last name. In 8th grade I had to change schools because of boundary upgrades. Amber made me feel so welcomed and she was a highlight of my day. Amber was hilarious, I wish we would have maintained our relationship throughout the duration of high school. Such a bright light should still be shining.

“ Dear Family of: Amber Marie Brock. Extending deep condolences to each one of you. Although not acquainted with the family, we share the pain of losing a dear loved one to the enemy, death. Can the dead really live again? Would you say...Maybe? Yes? No? WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY? "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."-Acts 24:15.

“ You do not know me, but I was reading Amber's obituary and was compelled to offer my sympathy to her family. All of us experience the pain of losing someone in death. However, it is even harder when they are so young. Hopefully, it will comfort you in knowing that others care. Most of all, God cares and he will comfort and sustain you. (Psalm 55:22)
