“ Aunt Mamie was my mother Raffaella's sister. My early memories of Aunt Mamie are that she was the most caring, unpretentious, unselfish woman that God has ever created. She was always ready to help anyone who needed or asked for it. She was so devoted to her family-her son, her grandchildren to her very last greatgrandchild. She was not a babysitter, she was a mother to them. This was confirmed to us in 1995, when we paid a visit and we got to meet her great grandson Steve. He had to write a paper on who was the most important person in his life, and he choose Aunt Mamie. We were so touched, but we weren't surprised. This devotion extended to all her extended family. When she visited us in CA we had the best time with her. She never turned down any trip or event. She was always ready for any outing. We would talk and laugh continuously. There was never a dull moment. No subject or topic was off limit, and she would confide in us about the most personal things in her life. She felt totally comfortable with us, and we with her. Aunt Mamie is a role model for everyone. She is someone that all of us should try and emulate in so many ways. Aunt Mamie was truly an angel, and God has now embraced her.

“ Aunt Mamie is my Great Aunt, and I will never forget when I first met her. I had already heard so much about her from my Mom Beatrice. I was thirteen years old when she first came to California and I fell in love with her, as everybody did in my family. She made many return visits and I felt like she was a second Grandmother to me, and I knew that she was just like my Grandmother (Aunt Mamie's sister) who had passed when I was young.

Aunt Mamie was somebody you could talk about anything with, nothing was off limits. She loved to ask us all kinds of questions, things that I don't think she would talk about with others. We would laugh and laugh, she was just like a little girl! She was always up for anything, she never said "no", to anything.

She was one of the most selfless, giving women I have ever met. I will never forget her, nor ever stop loving her. I know that the angels sang the day she passed. God bless you Aunt Mamie.

“ My dear sweet aunt Mamie, what a kind, caring, joyful person I will always remember in you. My dad and you laughing and telling jokes is something that makes me smile even now. What a blessing to have had you for so many years. I only wish we would have lived closer so I could have spent more time with you. You always made everyone feel so welcomed and loved no matter how long it had been since you had seen them. I know your joy in heaven will be worth the pain of our loss for right now. Till we meet again.....I love you!(daughter of Louie Petrone)
