“ Andy: Angling Road Elementary Memories will always be there. We had great times. I wish I had known you after 10 years old when I moved away. You were always a good friend. Someone when I had a bad day cheered me up. Rest in Peace and I hopefully will see you in Heaven. Where God has a place for or school.

Don McColl - December 12, 2014 at 10:12 AM

“ Rest in Peace So many memories of how we grew into adulthood. Some of the best times and laughter and memories happened as we plodded our way through raising our children.

Rosemary Rosin - December 12, 2014 at 10:12 AM

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss, please accept my condolence. The scripture at 2 Corinthians 1:2 "May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." Jehovah promises "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." When death is gone you will see your dear loved one again.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Andy will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Andy again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I hadn't talked to Andy since graduation and then 3 years ago we became Facebook friends and reacquainted ourselves. I found out Andy was still the goodhearted and very amusing person he'd been in high school. And we shared a great fondness for our furry family members as well. My sympathies and prayers for his wife, children, family and friends.

“ Dear Mr. Henry, I am truly sorry to hear of your great loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. My greatest strength has come from God's promises found in his word the bible. Jehovah God promises soon: "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Just imagine how wonderful life will be when we are reunited with our loved ones right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ Dear Andy, Thank you for being my friend along time ago and now. You made me laugh every day during our government class together. You had such caring, thoughtful words for me when my husband passed away. And of course you bugged me to join facebook to connect with our old friends. You were a great man even as a young boy and I'm so glad we got to share some of life together. I will miss your very special take on life. You will be missed by so many.

“ Andy and I first met in Southfield High School and developed a good friendship right from the start. A couple of years after graduation we both ended up in Vietnam, in different Units and in different parts of the country, but kept in touch by mail. Through Vietnam, marriages, raising families and work, we still kept in touch. I talked to you on the phone, February 28th--little did I know that this would be our last conversation. We had a good 50 plus year friendship. I miss you already.
