“ *To the Family of: Andrew J. Kogut. Deep condolences to each of you.
May you find peace and comfort from family, friends and especially in God's loving invitation to "Throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you.-1Peter 5:7. Also, Jesus showed that we will be reunited with our dead loved ones. How can we know? Because of what he said at: John 11:25 "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. And last but not least, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Acts 24:15.*

“ No words can be put together to explain the sadness that you all are feeling. I've only known of Drew's death for two days and it's been two of the hardest days of my life, with more tears than I ever imagined possible. I only wish I would have had the chance to say goodbye. I've said so many prayers for him and I now know that he is in such a far better place without all the pain. Please accept my deepest sympathy and know that you have a countless number of people who are thinking about all of you and praying for you each and every single day.
My DrewS will be missed now, always & 4ever!

“ Our prayers go out to the entire Kogut family and Andrew's friends. I only met Andrew briefly but know his brother Dan. Dan was always proud to talk about his brother, their bond, the strength he displayed in the face of adversity, the times they shared together and the positive influence Andrew had with those he encountered. Andrew fought a brave fight from what Dan and Collen shared with us, and Dan was always proud to talk about his brother. I wish to again express my condolences to the family and will always remember Andrew and the family in my prayers.

Love Always,

“ To my SECOND FAMILY,
My heart is with all of you at this time. I know there are no words to help make this any easier for you... Just know I love you all so very much.
I got the wonderful experience & gift to grow up with all of you & be apart of the family & to babysit the kids & watch them grow year after year.
I look back & my whole childhood reflects back to the "KOGUTS"... That simple name reflects so many wonderful times, memories & vacations.
The trust you put in me to care for your children means so much more to me today, as I have kids now myself.. Your children are your most precious gifts & joys in life.. You trusted me with yours & gave me so many memories with them that I will cherish my whole life...
May all of you find some comfort & peace to know you had the opportunity to fight to the dear end with Andrew...
The KOGUT love is a "powerful" love one of which should always be remembered that Andrew had & knew he had all along & will have forever.
May time help mend all the sadness that is in this family. I know it will never be the same, but time will help make it easier to cope with & help make the memories of Andrew keep Andrew alive forever..
I Love you all, with all of my heart..
Love Lynne (& Family)

“ My heart goes out to your family at this time. Drew was one of the first people I met at Western our freshman year and we instantly became friends. I have so many wonderful memories that Drew was a part of throughout our years in Kalamazoo, and feel very lucky to have called him a friend. He was a great person and he will be terribly missed.

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss in the Kogut family. Drew and I were in Garneau Hall together at Western. From the entire 5th floor Garneau Hall family you are in our thoughts and prayers. I can still see and here Drew say to me as I walked off of the elevator everyday "What up DUDE." Made me laugh everytime. Drew you will be terribly missed and I want you to know that you have touched each and everyone of us in your own special way! I am glad that you are not suffering anymore. Thanks for the memories and the laughs. One day we will all have to do it again! 5th floor Garneau Hall!

“ I've known Andrew for a long time through our many battles on the soccer field. We've been both opponents and teammates; and I've never seen anyone compete as hard as Andrew. He always showed so much compassion and love for the game.. and in life. He will be missed dearly. My heart and prayers go out to his family in this time of mourning.

“ I shared years of friendship and memories with Andrew, some captured in photographs that I now take comfort in. The thing I will remember most about Andrew is his laugh, as I sit here writing this. I can close my eyes and still hear it. Unfortunately, life's obstacles cut our friendship short a few years ago, but I will always hold him in my heart. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and close friends at this very difficult time.

“ My love and prayers go out to a very dear friend, Laura, and her family, at this sad, dark time. May the love of those around you bring sunshine back into your days, and the memories you have of Andrew warm your hearts again. People near and far are thinking of you, and wishing you strength and courage to face the days ahead. With love, Tara
