“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Dear Andy- You remind us that our stay here is all too short. You always seemed to make the best of whatever came your way. The sound of your laughter and the twinkle in your eye is something I will always hold dear. May your "girls" know God's peace. Say hello to auntie and uncle.

“ My condolences,
Andy was a good man, whenever I had the pleasure of talking with him it was always a good time. He always had a good story to share or truly wanted to listen to one of my stories. Every time we meet he would make me feel like a long lost friend, happy to see each other and get re-acquainted.
I was happy to get to know him through Steph and I know he was very proud of both his daughters.
A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. Please accept my condolences, he will not be forgotten.

“ To the 'girls' in Andy's life. I didn't know Andy well but enjoyed his easy going way. He always seemed to have a smile on his face enjoying small gatherings with the neighbors. His time was too short but I know he had the best family a man could wish for. I am honored to have known him.

“ Dear Andy, Your strength and sense of humor through your battle inspired us. We will remember your spirit with hearts full of love. Your darling girls must be missing your presence so much, but are brave like you! With your recent beard, you reminded me so much of Harrison Ford, that I told Ronnie I was going to call you 'Indy'! Rest in peace, dear Indy- you're in our hearts forever! - John and Vivienne Lucksom (Joshua and Rebecca)
