“ What a fine man Andrew Zarow was to take care of. Very professional in every aspect of living. Great businessman and family man. Such integrity! He will be sorely missed here but such an asset to our Heavenly Father's realm. Never wanted to bother anyone, and was full of gratitude. Soar high my friend, never to be forgotten. Sincerely, Danette B.

“ I met Andy when we were about 11 yrs. old.

He was an official member of the St.

Clements Gang then. Our mode of transportation was our 2 wheel bikes! We would gather at a friends house and just

"hang out" enjoying each others company and listening to Johnny Mathis albums. We have stayed in touch for 59 years. Following classmates marriages, children, who went into the service, when they came back.....and the losses!

Andy is an exceptionally admirable gentleman, husband, father, & grandfather, who always supported and helped all extended family and friends.

His endless sense of humor & genuine caring for those around him drew people to him, then those intense blue eyes locked you in.

Andy excelled in the business world too. He was a very hard working employee, extremely articulate, who quickly figured out what needed to be done, then did it.

We went to Woodworth & Fordson schools together. Then he went on to U of D and invited us all to their Sock Hops. Thats where Barbara captured his heart! We gathered again at class reunions, both St. Clements & Fordsons.

Courageous and strong, he met lifes challenges head on, and was "no quitter"!

To quote a couple of beautiful songs for his family I'll repeat: " Unforgettable, Thats What You Are". "Chances Are You'll wear a silly grin" when we come into view, in "The 12th of Never", we'll all be missing you!

For Barb, and his family, I send you strength & prayers. In Friendship, Donella (Bottomley) Laskowsky

“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ *Dear Barbara and Family;
Vince and I are so sorry to hear of Andy's passing. He is one of our favorite Konarske In-Laws. He was always so helpful, funny, and kind. We enjoyed seeing both of you whenever we visited our Michigan relatives. Andy seemed to face life's challenges with courage, good humor and a grace that we've frequently admired. He will be sadly missed, but we are very thankful that we were able to know him and be part of your family. Take good care of yourself and know that we are thinking fond thoughts of all of you and that you are in our prayers. Love, Cousin Karen*
