“ I met Angela and Roni when we were all in school. I loved her spirit, her gentleness and her admiration for Roni. They both needed each other and took care of each other. They did things for themselves as kids that only as an adult you understood. Their bond, their determination. Her kindness is what is to be remembered. Thinking of Roni and her family,

“ Oh Angela, you know I love you. Always have. We met and became friends about 21 years ago, in an unconventional way, and it was great to be able to see you for the short time that I did in September. You will be missed. I'm so sorry for the loss your family is suffering, but I'm happy after all the talks we had, that you are finally at peace. Rest now, your fight is over.

“ To her family I am so sorry for your loss. Angela used to live 2 doors down from me ,many years ago. My little girl would sneak down there first thing in the morning. She just loved her so much.. Alex was a new born then. She always made me laugh, she had a good heart and loved her kids and family. You will surely be missed girl. Love always.....
