“ Anita was the best sister and my best friend. She was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. The world would be a better place if everyone lived like Anita. She did so much for everyone because she wanted to. She cared about people. We are all missing her so much. Happy Heavenly Birthday today (July 6) Anita. Love you ❤️❤️🙏🙏 Your sister Michele

“ Dearest Doug and Family,

I was shocked and deeply saddened to learn of Anita's sudden passing. In this time of grieving, I am flooded with many lasting memories and an avalanche of tears thinking about the loss of my dear friend.

Anita was truly a bright light and those that have had the good fortune of knowing her benefitted from her humor, vast knowledge, tenacious spirit, and loving heart.

As a childhood friend here are a few fond remembrances:

- Shopping together at Westland on Saturday's.
- Roller skating
- Riding our 10 Speed bikes (we lived on our bikes.)
- Listening to Carly Simon, James Taylor, and Carol King.
- Talking about girl things...

As time went on...Anita and I stayed in touch. She always made time for me when I came to town from California, and she kept our tradition of sending each other Christmas tree ornaments every year. She will forever be in my thoughts and I will miss her.

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help alleviate your grief during this difficult time.

With much love to you Doug, Rachel, Ally, Shannon, and sister Michelle,

*Our hearts are broken. Sadness and disbelief. We miss you already dear friend. You were always taking care of others; from the first care package (lasagna) you sent Doug, Tom and Brian, in GMI, over 45 years ago, you have touched our lives and hearts. You definitely, showered the people you loved, with your kindness, thoughtfulness, boundless spirit and knowledge about everything from stocks to insurance policies. Everytime I hear James Taylor, or Gordon Lightfoot's "Beautiful", I think of you. We can hear you puttering in the kitchen, cottage or at home, laughing and preparing a feast for your lively brood. You raised three beautiful, strong, independent women: Rachel, Allison and Shannon. Sunday conference calls, (Doug, Tom and myself) will be missed. We covered everything from: our children's lives, international/ national politics, vacations, dreams, what to read, Netflix, movie, etc. We had plans to drive to Emily's wedding together in July. You are with the angels now and are reunited with your Mom, Dad and Mike.
Love you forever.
Hugs to: Doug, Rachel, Allison, Shannon, Michelle, Ken and other family and friends.*

“ I have so many memories of my beautiful spunky wise and strong friend! She was an inspiration and I love every deep conversation we shared, every meal and glass of wine we have sat with. I am so blessed to be her friend. Her constant giving and helping us all to know we are valued is priceless in my memory bank forever.

I love you Anita

love to Doug, Rachel, Ally, Shannon and all the boys xoxo
