“ My Auntie Ann was a story teller. She loved to recall times of the past and to even pull Uncle Don in on the story with her... Hey Don, remember when.... smiles She was amazing to watch because the way she would say certain things, I could see my Granny Mickey (her mother) and my own mom Connie, (her younger sister). She had granny's eyes, the same eyes my mom shared. She gave me a sense of familiar, peace, and love. And the more I got to connect with her, the more I discovered who I got some of my traits from. I am also fortunate to have been named after her, with my middle name also being Ann. With that, I've always placed her up high, on a pedestal and adored her. My Mom would say, "That's your Auntie Ann". MY Auntie Ann! As she will always and forever be! I just wish there was more time... more time to spend with her, more time to listen to her, and more time for her to see how much I truly love her! Words cannot describe how wonderful of a woman she is, and I'd be lucky to live up to half the woman she is! Rest In Peace Auntie Ann! MY Auntie Ann!

“ I can't believe she's gone. Ann and I were friends from junior high, when we lived in Detroit. She was always the best dressed of all us girls and had those amazing dempels 😊 As the years went by we moved out of Detroit and went our separate ways. We reconnected about 5 years ago. We picked up where we left off years ago. Ann was a wonderful friend. I miss her so very much. I miss her smile (those dempels) . I will miss our long conversations on the phone. My prayers for all her family 🙏🙏 Ann and I will meet again in heaven

“ *I lived next door when I was a girl growing up in Detroit, we were friends and shared many nights sitting on the porch steps and talking.
We went to Cass Park and Red Hots on Cass. She was a good friend! Till we meet again Dear Friend. Rest in Peace*
