In her younger days she volunteered sewing cancer pads for the SPPS Ladies Altar Society, went door-to-door collecting for the March of Dimes and crocheted many doll dresses for a church fair. She was the Tigers #1 Fan and enjoyed going to their games until age 93 and continued to watch every game on tv. Ann met many of the players and enjoyed that immensely. Playing Bingo, reading The Detroit News and watching classic movies filled her days. We wish to thank the staff at Ascension Genesys Hospital in Grand Blanc, Michigan particularly Dr. Weiss, nurses; Jim, Tammy, Kathy and the hospice team for their compassion, kindness and exceptional care of our mother. “ Such a SWEET and KIND woman with such a JOYFUL personality! I am grateful to have known her as Pat's mom. She was so fun to converse with any time I visited her with Pat. I pray for God's LOVING peace to envelope all Ann's loved ones now, in their time of grief.
