“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Anna Marsella was a very loving and caring woman. Shortly after my son started dating her granddaughter it was Sunday dinner at Grandma's for him. Most young men seek the approval of the woman's parents, but he knew it was also important to seek the approval of Grandma. She was very much loved and respected by the entire family. I felt good to know he would be marrying into such a loving family. She was a very fortunate woman to have lived a long life on this earth with much love and care from her family. I am especially familiar with the care from her son, Clem. She will be missed by many. My sincere sympathy to the entire family.

“ We had the great honor of meeting this fantastic lady, seventeen years ago. She thoroughly earned our love and respect, just after meeting. She was a great influence on her great grandson Bobby, teaching him noodle and pasta making. As soon as he could talk, she became his NooNoo WaWa, named for noodles. She lived an Italian and American life, and provided an influence for many. Loved you, NooNoo! Love Jo, Bill, Jenni, Jon, and of course Bobby.
