“ Julio and I would like to extend our condolences to the family of Annie. She will be missed so much. I'm so glad we had the opportunity to have the Tacconelli picnic at Carol and Andy's house because of rainy weather that day. We enjoyed good food, great conversations, and company. We know Annie enjoyed herself and said "this beats going to Stoney Creek park in the rain". Then on September 29th Denise and Annie came to our condo and brought bagels and creamcheese around 9:30 a.m. then Gary did Denise and her mothers hair. My two sisters Ann and Evelyn came by and I made lunch, then for dinner we decided to order pizza and make a salad. I'm so glad we had the opportunity to spend the whole day together. They didn't leave our house until 10:30 p.m. Never procrastinate because life is too short. If you say you're going to do something do it. May the good Lord bless you all.

Love, Julio and Jenny

“ Dear Dave, Denise, and Family,

*We want to give our deepest sympathy to your entire family. Annie was a beautiful and loving mother, sister, grandmother, and aunt. She was a people person who loved life and enjoyed visiting and sitting around drinking coffee, and great conversations. I am so glad that Andy and I had the opportunity to go up to Dave and Denise's cottage in Grayling, MI over Labor Day weekend. Andy made potato pancakes and Annie really enjoyed them. One day we took a ride up to Traverse City to do some shopping and she enjoyed just hanging out with us. She will be missed dearly and our hearts go out to the family and we ask that the good Lord guide them and keep them in his loving care always.
God Bless, Andy and Carol*

“ Dear Family:

Hello:

I was sorry to read about the death of your loved one. I know how it hurts when a loved one dies, and my heart goes out to you in sympathy.

I have been comforted with the Bibles promises of those who are now asleep in death will wake up when God's son, Jesus Christ will use his power in the near future. The scripture at John 5:28, 29 records this promise:

“Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

The Bibles' promise has aided many to cope during these stressful times and to have the confidence in the Bible based hope of a Paradise earth ...where death would be no more.”

{Revelation 21:3-5}
