“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com

Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ There aren't adequate words to express how very much Mrs. Currie meant to my mom and me. She was the most wonderful neighbor a family could ask for. She was, along with Mr. Currie, among many on our street who became dear friends. They taught me a great deal about being "family" to one's neighbors. Seldom does a day go by when I don't think of the neighborhood of my childhood and try to do something that would build a similar community in our current surroundings. Although we lived 150 miles apart for the past 20 years, occasional visits to her home were always a highlight of our family's trips to the east side of Michigan. (At least a couple of times I even left with a pair of slippers! How sad it will be when they become worn beyond repair.) How I will miss those opportunities and this dear lady.
