“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Annice will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Annice again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Annice seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I am so sorry about your loss. I always have loved Annece we use to have some good times together. When her and Glen came out of services they lived with us till he could get and job and home for them to live in. Kimberly was a baby when they came to live with us. To all of the children I know how you feel I have been there your loss is great but, if you trust GOD he will see you through this. I am grateful to have know Annece, sorry she had to go so soon. Love from from all of the Sharp family.
