“ Tony and I met in 1982. We were immediately friends. We shot together,Rendezvous together,and enjoyed life together.

I was there for him during Kevin's death,and the entire aftermath. As a Thanks,He built a PREMIUM Hawkins rifle for me. And engraved a tribute to Kevin on the top barrel flat.

Our trips to Canada were EPIC! Me,huge beard,hair to my butt,him,a gruff old Marine,made going through customs with a Truck full of guns and powder.....interesting,to say the least.

He will be missed. Ya big 'ole Teddy Bear.

Tony built me a left hand flint .45 hunting rifle. It will always be one of my most favored firearms. I'll miss you, Tony.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Tony has been our neighbor across the street for over 30 years and will be missed. Steve & Diane would have attended his service but unfortunately we are out of state presently. May all your fond memories give you some comfort in this difficult time.
