“ We send your family Our prayers and condolences,, We did not have the honor of knowing Anthony, but we know his son , Tony,, Dave worked with Tony a few yrs. back at L&T In Southfield, if Tony is anything like his Dad, Then Anthony, was a very wonderful person, please know- Anthony is not suffering anymore, He is at peace with Our FATHER in Heaven, and is with All of you , through your Great Memeories of better times, and will always be Near as your Hearts. just close your eyes and Remember----- and hopefully ,that will be enough, to bring a smile, back to your face , once more.. in the future. ps. ---Tony,---when you are feeling up to it,, drop Dave an E-MAIL and let him know how you have been doing since L&T... Again, we pray for You and your Whole Family in this trying time..at the loss of your Father.. Dave & Kathy H.

“ We are acquainted with Tony through the Dunkin Donut Store and ever since we heard of his illness have been praying for his recovery. Sometimes the Lord works in funny ways and takes a loved one from us much sooner than we want. We pray that God has mercy on dear Tony's soul.

“ Our family has been faithfully praying for the Orlando's ever since we learned of Mr. Orlando's illness. Being more of a brother to Tony since our days at Michigan, I knew what a close family bond was being tested through these difficult times. I think we share the belief that those we are close to will always be with us, in one way or another. Mrs. Orlando, Tony and Michelle: please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. My daughter Annika has said many prayers and lit many candles with me for Mr. Orlando. Ironically, her first communion preparation at Sacred Heart Academy in Chicago is also Friday morning. We will say prayers together at her school ceremony on behalf of Mr. Orlando. My parents, Jim and Fran Johnson will be visiting your family at the funeral home to share our thoughts. Please know you are not alone. Love Jeric, Sarah, Annika and Fiona Johnson
