“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Mr. Meadows, ahh...I remember him from Bedford when I was a child. Such a good man. Always had a smile on his face. He helped me when I cut my head open while in school one day, he took me to Josie (Mrs. Bellottie) and told her that her Redhead was hurt. I will sadly miss him. God Bless to his family.

“ I was so shocked and sad to here of the death of Ernie. I only knew him from O.C.B. in Taylor ..But felt like family since we had so many dinners there together just tables apart with my sister and brother in law. I am sorry for your loss ...He was a Great Guy, and He loved people and we were so lucky to have known him for even a short time. My Heart goes out to his wife and family. He will live on in the hearts of many that had a chance to know him in there life. May God Bless All....R.I.P. Earnie

“ Hearing the name Bedford Elementary automatically has me picture Mr. Meadows. He is either pushing the mop in the lunch room, down the halls or putting up/down the lunch room tables. I can picture him wearing his uniform with the keys hanging from his belt and that friendly smile. I have been truly blessed that God planned on having our paths cross in this lifetime. Our friendship has been temporarily seperated until we meet again in Heaven. Love you bunches Mr. Meadows!
