“ My family and I would like to send our condolences to your family. Something i find very comforting is when Jesus loses his friend Lazarus to death. At John 11:1-15 he says "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep."

“ Jan, Bruce, Sue, David, Amy and Chuck there are no words to express the loss of your husband, loving father and brother. I will always remember him as a very proud, kind, caring and giving person who made a big difference in my life. He will always be remembered by all and he will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers for some time to come. God Bless and love to all of you.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Arthur will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Authur again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Arthur seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
